

2006 annual report

Expanding the ecumenical table

In 2006, Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon (EMO) responded to the call to infuse new energy into the ecumenical movement in Oregon. As this Annual Report makes clear, EMO is blessed to bring together under the ecumenical banner a diversity of Christian faith communities and interfaith partners for community ministry, theological dialogue and education, and public witness and advocacy. Together we witness God's love and care for creation and find ways to live fully into the collective call to serve in the spirit of justice, peace and unity.

We are pleased to report that in 2006 we launched a new initiative to expand the membership at EMO. For most of our 34 years, our membership was only to denominational bodies in Oregon. Believing that we needed to be in a better position to bring together and more fully reflect the diversity of the church in Oregon, we have now created new membership opportunities for congregations and local and regional ecumenical organizations. In addition, we added an interfaith partners membership option, so that other faith communities can also join more fully in support and joint service with EMO on issues of mutual concern. Along with our member denominations, these new members and supporters will be more intentionally engaged in participating in both the mission of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue and service that is so central to many of the faith communities in our region. While we may live in one of the most "unchurched" regions in the country, we are pleased to report that there are new opportunities for ministry and a vibrant ecumenical future in Oregon.

As you review the program information, statistics and financial numbers in this report, we ask that you pay special attention to the names of our members and supporters. For it is here that the true testimony of the ecumenical reality is known. For ultimately, it is only when we come together that we begin to witness more fully the power of Jesus' prayer for unity—"That they all may be one"—and find the strength to more fully work to heal and repair a broken world. Thank you for all that you do to make this witness possible, and we invite you to join with Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon in the days ahead.

Faithfully,

Residents at the Patton Home have access to beautifully-appointed common rooms and gathering spots including a fireside room, sunroom and dining room.

Affordable Housing

Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon (EMO) has a long history of developing and advocating for affordable housing and is dedicated to filling the housing needs of those less fortunate by providing the services listed below.

Patton Home is a beautiful and gracious 100-year old single-room occupancy residence in north Portland offering drug- and alcohol-free housing for up to 63 low-income residents.

Shared Housing provides affordable housing opportunities through a referral and matching service, bringing together those who need affordable housing with people who have homes and need help with rent, household chores or personal care.

Last year, the HIV Day Center experienced 7,340 visits by low-income individuals living with HIV/AIDS.

Hunger, Nutrition & Social Support

Serving communities in crisis and people in need is central to EMO's basic human needs ministries. Our diverse programs are listed below.

Food Services/Delizioso Catering prepares nutritious meals for clients at the HIV Day Center and Daily Bread Express, residents at the Patton Home and students at five local schools. The program also runs a catering service, providing outstanding and affordable food for events.

HIV Services offers a wide range of assistance for people living with HIV/AIDS. The Day Center provides meals, counseling, recreational therapy, computers, phones, laundry, clothing and showers. The Daily Bread Express is the only program in Portland that delivers hot and frozen meals to homebound individuals living with HIV/AIDS.

Northeast Emergency Food Program (NEFP) provides nutritionally-balanced food for people in critical need and works to develop neighborhood-based solutions to secure access to adequate, affordable and healthy foods.

Hunger, Nutrition and Social Support in 2006 ... EMO's Food Services/Delizioso Catering prepared an average of 500 meals per week for students at five local schools and 280 meals per week for HIV Services clients ■ The HIV Day Center served 246 clients—85 percent were under the federal poverty level and 37 percent were homeless; the Daily Bread Express served 70 clients ■ The Northeast Emergency Food Program provided 5,822 families with a five-day supply of emergency groceries at a cost of $4.75 per person.

The Interfaith Food and Farms Partnership connected eight congregations and eight farmers through "That's My Farmer!" farmers' market coupon program; approximately $12,000 in coupons were sold and $2,000 in coupons went to people with low-incomes.

Environmental Ministries

Interfaith Network for Earth Concerns (INEC) carries out EMO's Environmental Ministries' mission of earth stewardship by connecting, informing and empowering people, congregations and religious institutions to work for justice, care and renewal of creation.

Environmental Ministries in 2006 ...

Oregon Interfaith Power & Light facilitated the screening of 200 showings of An Inconvenient Truth in over 35 cities and towns in Oregon and provided eight workshops on energy stewardship and green building throughout the state ■ Over 120 people attended the Oregon Interfaith Global Warming Campaign's "Faith Forum on Global Warming" in October featuring Bill McKibben, religious and business leaders, and representatives of congressional offices ■ With the contributions of over 120 volunteers, a 50-page Benton County food assessment report, "From Our Own Soil," was completed and released at a November event attended by over 100 people; it sparked substantial dialogue on what needs to be done to rebuild a healthy and prosperous local food system.

In June, EMO's Public Policy Advocacy program organized a meeting between Oregon faith leaders and Governor Kulongoski to discuss immigration issues in the state.

Public Policy Advocacy

EMO believes that we are called to promote justice and compassion, ensuring that all Oregonians are able to live their lives full of possibility. EMO's Public Policy Advocacy helps train and engage people so that they may participate in this important aspect of our ministry.

EMO's advocacy network Christians for Peace and Justice unites individuals, congregations and religious organizations from different denominations across the state who are committed to advocating for social justice as witnesses to the public policy process on a state and national level.

Public Policy Advocacy in 2006 ...

Successfully advocated for legislation to cap interest rates on payday loans ■ Launched the "Oregon Interfaith Campaign to Overcome Poverty" to engage and support congregations in confronting poverty ■ Distributed over 11,000 copies of EMO's "Ballot Measure Guide" for the fall 2006 election ■ Cosponsored a workshop on "Legislative Advocacy Training for Nonprofit Institutions," attended by 77 people.

PICS students have access to a computer lab on campus, which was funded by a $15,000 grant from Juan Young Trust.

Refugee & Immigration Ministries (RIM)

EMO's Refugee and Immigration Ministries offer comprehensive and compassionate services to thousands of refugees and immigrants in the Portland metro area through the programs listed below.

Portland International Community School (PICS) provides culturally-relevant education in collaboration with Portland Public Schools for refugee, immigrant and first generation high school students.

Russian Oregon Social Services (ROSS) gives assistance to Russian-speaking refugees and immigrants, including domestic violence services, breast health education, mental health counseling, youth services, ESL and computer classes, citizenship training, legal and tax assistance, dental care and more.

Sponsors Organized to Assist Refugees (SOAR) offers resettlement and comprehensive services to refugees through church and other sponsorships, including asylum coordination.

Jan Eifers, EMO director of Congregational Relations & Peace Programs, with Arab and Jewish students who attend an integrated public school in Jerusalem. Eifers was one of 22 local peacemakers who embarked on a two-week journey to the Middle East in October, providing an opportunity for interviews and discussions with people intimately involved in peace work, media, education, human rights issues and government policies.

Theological Education & Dialogue

EMO's Theological Education and Dialogue programs help congregations and individuals deepen their own faith and ecumenical commitments and better understand those of their neighbors. Each year, EMO offers workshops, discussions, lectures, presentations, celebrations and prayer vigils to celebrate Christian unity, foster interfaith relations and explore ethical and moral issues. EMO also sponsors the Collins Lectures, an annual event designed to provide an opportunity for clergy and laity to explore issues related to religion and social ethics.

EMO makes every effort to ensure accuracy. Please contact us at (503) 221-1054 if you notice an error.
