

Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon

Application for Membership

Membership commitment includes support of EMO's mission and vision as well as a willingness to contribute to the work of Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon (EMO) through spiritual and financial resources. Send completed form to EMO (see contact information below). We look forward to reviewing your application and we will contact you soon.

Congregation/Denomination/Organization

Date

Contact Name

Phone Number

Address

Email Address

City State ZIP

Website

■ We are applying as: Denomination Congregation Ecumenical Organization Interfaith Partner

■ Provide a brief mission statement or purpose of your organization.

■ Why does your denomination/congregation/organization wish to join EMO?

■ Describe your organization's ecumenical/interfaith commitments and how these will enhance the mission of EMO:

■ Denominations and Congregations—Denominations: How many congregations do you have in the state of Oregon? _____

Congregations: How many adult members attend your church? _____

■ Interfaith Organizations—How many members do you have? _____

Is your organization a registered 501(c)3 in Oregon? (This is a requirement for membership.) Yes No

What do your programs and activities involve?

Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon

Serving Together in Faith

Mission Statement

Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon engages diverse communities of faith in serving, learning and advocating together for the wellbeing of all creation.

Categories of Membership and Dues Structure

As a covenantal membership association, all members are expected to support EMO financially. Financial support provides the means to successfully carry out the mission of EMO and agreed upon ministries and services. Recommended annual membership dues, designated for the annual fund are as follows:

- Denominational: $75-100 per congregation in judicatory
- Congregational: $1 per adult member, with a $100 minimum
- Ecumenical and Interfaith Cooperative Organizations: $200

Benefits of Membership

- Subscription to print newsletter The Voice
- Monthly enewsletter FaithConnect@EMO
- Special email alerts and briefings on important issues
- Early notification of community events
- Invitation to private receptions and meetings
- Greater visibility across the metro area and state
- On-line resources and links
- Network for coalition building with other organizations and individuals who share interest in ecumenical and interfaith work
- Health insurance eligibility
- Eligibility for service on the board and program committees
- Quarterly meetings with Bishops and Executives forum for denominational members
- Public Policy email updates

Contact Information

Carla Starrett-Bigg, Director of EMO Development & Communications
0245 SW Bancroft, Suite B, Portland, OR 97239
(503) 221-1054, ext. 275 ■ csbigg@emoregon.org ■ www.emoregon.org