2010 Ecumenical Service Recognition Awards Nomination Form

ECUMENICAL MINISTRIES of OREGON

Ecumenical Service Recognition Awards

Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon annually recognizes individuals and groups in the community who have demonstrated a commitment to ecumenical service in Oregon. Award presentations for 2010 will be made at the EMO Annual Community Awards & Celebration Dinner, Tuesday, May 25, 2010.

AWARDS

Individuals, congregations, or other interfaith, ecumenical or religious organizations, and businesses may be nominated for the following annual awards:

Vollum Ecumenical Humanitarian Award

Presented in recognition of how an outstanding commitment to humanitarian responsibility has significantly enhanced ecumenical efforts in the state and quality of life for all. The award is named for the late Howard Vollum and his wife, Jean. Recent recipients: Jubilee Oregon, Mercy Corps.

Louise Hunderup Religious Education Award

Presented in recognition of outstanding educational leadership to the religious community of Oregon. The award is named for Louise Hunderup, who for over 30 years was the Director of Christian Education for the Greater Portland Council of Churches, one of the predecessor organizations of Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon. Recent recipient: The Rev. Dr. William Apel.

Ecumenical Service Award

Presented in recognition of special achievements in supporting ecumenical community ministries in Oregon. Recent recipients: McMinnville Area Habitat for Humanity, Madras United Methodist Church.

The Two Pauls Award

Presented in recognition of outstanding promotion of ecumenical and interfaith dialogue, service and relations. The award was established in 1994 to honor two significant Oregon clergy members, The Rev. Dr. Paul Wright and The Most Rev. Paul Waldschmidt. Recent recipient: Rabbi Aryeh Hirschfield (posthumous).

Ecumenist of the Year

Presented in recognition of outstanding efforts to promote ecumenism through a commitment to theological education and dialogue, community ministry, and justice advocacy. Recent recipients: The Rev. Mark Knutson, Thomas O'Connor, PhD.

SELECTION PROCESS

Nominations will be accepted until February 26, 2010. The EMO Awards Committee will review nominations in March and notify award recipients and nominators prior to the Community Celebration.

You may reproduce this form to make additional nominations.
