

THE COLLINS LECTURE

The annual Collins Lectures explore issues related to religion and social ethics. They have been a signature event of Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon and its predecessor organization the Portland Council of Churches since 1967. The event is funded in part by the Collins Foundation.

RECENT COLLINS LECTURES:

- The Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III, "Redeeming the Soul of America: Race, Justice & Reconciliation" (2016)
- "The Gospel of Conquest: Native Americans, Christianity & the Doctrine of Discovery" (2015)
- Karen Armstrong, "The Transformative Power of Compassion" (2014)

COSPONSORS

Cosponsored by the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon; Community of Christ, Portland; Deep Green Films; First Unitarian Church, Portland; Oregon-Idaho Conference of the United Methodist Church; Providence Health & Services; Society of Friends (Quakers); St. Andrew Lutheran Church; St. Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church; Trinity Episcopal Cathedral; West Multnomah Soil & Water Conservation District.

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it.

ABOUT THE EVENT

Join us for education, reflection and a call to action!

- What is climate justice, and why is it a civil rights issue?
- Explore the ties between ecological justice and social justice as we respond to God's call to be faithful stewards of Creation.
- Learn about innovative, practical ways to protect people, places and the common good through individual, legislative and congregational actions.
- Join in building spiritual resilience to meet the challenge of caring for our beloved Earth home.

SPEAKERS

THE REV. CANON SALLY BINGHAM

President and founder of Interfaith Power & Light (IPL) and canon for the environment in the Episcopal Diocese of California.

THE REV. DR. GERALD DURLEY
