

Hearing the Cries for Justice Convocation 2018

Application for Travel Stipend

Because we are encouraging participation in the Convocation from across Oregon, we are making a limited number of travel stipends available to those who qualify. Decisions by the Convocation host committee are final. To qualify, applicants must meet the following minimum qualifications:

- Hotel accommodations must be made at the Park Lane Inn (809 King Ave. Portland, OR 97205, 503-226-6288), reserved under the group name Hearing the Cries Convocation. Availability ends January 22, 2018, or whenever the block of rooms is filled.
- Preference for stipends will be given to applicants already involved in corrections ministry, programs or services, including re-entry services.
- Participants who must travel two hours (100 miles or more from convocation site to your address) are eligible for a one-night stay at the Park Lane Inn on Monday, January 29, 2018.
- Participants who must travel three hours or more (150 miles or more from convocation site to your address) are eligible for a two-night stay at the Park Lane Inn on January 29-30, 2018.
- Applicants must be registered for and attend the Convocation to receive the stipend.

Please submit completed stipend application as soon as possible, as stipend availability is limited. We prefer electronic submissions, sent to english@riousa.com. Completed travel stipend applications may also be mailed to EMO, % Jillann Johnson, 0245 SW Bancroft St, Suite B, Portland OR 97239. Please print clearly or type.

Name:

Date submitted:

Street address or P.O. Number:

City:

Zip:

County:

Phone:

E-mail:

Congregation/Community/Faith tradition:

Organizational affiliation/s:

Are you currently affiliated with a congregation /organization as a volunteer or paid staff member in programs or services provided to people in prison, jails, victims of crime and/or people with criminal histories?

Yes

No

If your answer is yes, please briefly describe your involvement. If no, please describe your interest:

Will you be willing to serve as a connection between EMO's criminal justice program and your community?

Yes

Not at this time

No

Is there anything else we should know about you or your participation in the Convocation, to help the host planning committee make its decisions?